DWIGHT D. OPPERMAN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Opperman Scholarship program awards five merit-based, full-tuition renewable scholarships to outstanding entering first-year students. In addition, the program provides an annual grant of up to $10,000 to each Opperman Scholar to help pay for books and living expenses while attending Drake Law School.

To be considered for this prestigious award, you need only submit your application for admission to Drake Law School. The applications of all admitted students are screened by a committee of Law School faculty members to identify potential Opperman Scholars. If you are the son/daughter of a West Publishing Company, West Group, or successor company employee or the son/daughter of an Article III federal judge, please complete the following section.
