The Supreme Court Competition

Each year, outstanding advocates in the Law School compete in the Supreme Court Competition for the honor of presenting final arguments to the Iowa Supreme Court. The problem is based upon a real case, using an actual record that was pending before the Iowa Supreme Court, thus giving competitors a realistic experience.

The competition is open to all second and third year law students and consists of writing a brief and arguing in two preliminary rounds, one on-brief and one off-brief. Each competitor argues individually in the preliminary rounds, with 15 minutes of time allocated to each advocate. The top four advocates based upon scores from the preliminary rounds advance to the final round before the Iowa Supreme Court. The award for the Best Oralist in the final round is then announced at the Supreme Court Celebration Banquet.

A Brief Summary of the 2012 Supreme Court Competition Problem

Goliath National Bank v. City of Kutzer, Iowa

On June 19, 2006, Goliath National Bank ("Bank") purchased a tax sale certificate during Arnold County's annual tax sale, giving the Bank a lien on a parcel of property in Kutzer, Iowa. The property was later determined to be "abandoned" by the City of Kutzer ("City") under Iowa Code § 657A.1. The City then sought to obtain title to the property under Iowa Code § 657A.10A, which would allow it to obtain title free and clear of all liens and encumbrances—including the Bank's tax lien. After a trial on the merits, the district court granted title for the property to the City and found that Iowa Code § 657A.10A did not violate the Bank's constitutional rights.

On appeal, the parties argue the constitutionality of Iowa Code § 657A.10A under the procedural due process, substantive due process, and eminent domain takings clauses of the Iowa Constitution. The addition of (6) to Iowa Code § 657A.10A in 2010 provides a further wrinkle to the parties' arguments if the Court finds that the new subsection applies retroactively to the matter.

Appellate Competitions

NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION
The National Environmental Moot Court Competition takes place each year at the Pace University Law School in White Plains, New York. The competition requires writing an appellate brief on a complex environmental law problem, usually involving both statutory interpretation and constitutional issues. The team then travels to Pace in late February for oral arguments. This year, Drake’s team made it to the quarterfinal round, with Renner Walker and Corey Longhurst splitting the best oralist awards in their preliminary rounds.

2011-12 National Environmental Moot Court Team:
Corey Longhurst, Robert Thole, Renner Walker

The team was coached by Professor Jerry Anderson.

NATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION
The National Moot Court Competition is sponsored by the Young Lawyers Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York and the American College of Trial Lawyers. This year Drake competed at the regional competition hosted by Hamline, where the team of Leslie Behaunek, Katelyn Bries, and Matthew Jarvey advanced to the quarterfinal round. Matthew Jarvey won the best oralist award for the regional competition.

2011-12 National Moot Court Teams:
Leslie Behaunek
Katelyn Bries
Matthew Jarvey
Jim Hathaway
Erica Liabo

Inns of Court

American Inns of Court have been formed throughout the United States for the purpose of promoting and improving trial and appellate advocacy skills, adherence to ethical ideals and professionalism among members. Members, who are limited in number to 65, include judges, senior and new attorneys, and law students who meet regularly throughout the year to participate in demonstrations of forensic techniques, critiques and evaluations, and collegial discussion and dining. Two Inns of Court have been formed in Des Moines, and Drake Law students and faculty are members of each.
