Iowa International Center Dialogue Series

Scotland: Going It Alone?

Presented by Derek Wilson, Global Practitioner in Residence
Drake Law School, Des Moines, Iowa

Tuesday, October 7 - Noon to 1 p.m.
Central Library, 1000 Grand Avenue, Downtown Des Moines

The International Dialogue Series is a program of the Iowa International Center and is sponsored by DuPont Pioneer

Derek Wilson currently serves as Global Practitioner in Residence at Drake Law School in Des Moines. Wilson, a former Scottish solicitor, is also a law professor at one of Drake’s partners, University of Nantes in France. As an expert on global separatist movements, Wilson will take time to help interpret results of this historic vote (which takes place September 18) and provide perspective on the resulting impact of Scotland’s potential separation from the UK. Join us to learn more about all sides in the debate, including whether we’ll see major changes to the iconic British flag, as suggested at left.

All Iowa International Center Dialogue Series events are free and open to the public. Guests are welcome to bring lunch to the event.

The Iowa International Center Dialogue Series engages public and business professionals in conversation on global issues and Iowa’s connections abroad.

Videos of Iowa International Center Dialogue Presentations are available online! Visit www.iowainternationalcenter.org to catch up on these cultural conversations at your convenience.
